were philanthropists whose service to their community was ongoing through all the years of their marriage. They dedicated their talents and energy to the welfare of others, working constantly for good. Many students in need of funds, both at CSU-Bakersfield and Bakersfield College, benefited from their giving spirit. They endowed scholarships to be awarded in perpetuity at both schools and also through the California Retired Teachers Association where they were active supporters.

Fred and Beverly served their churches, College Heights Congregational and First Congregational, in multiple and varied ways. Their church endowment included the funding of a concert series, which will consist of five musical events every year, to be enjoyed without charge by music lovers in the Bakersfield community. We have been enriched by their generosity, and we will remember them with gratitude.

sanctuary jazz ensemble

Most members of "Sanctuary" have played improvisational jazz together for nearly 25 years. According to leader, Dr. Doug Davis of Cal State University Bakersfield, the name "initially related to the idea of a place all of us could come to express our creativity with the greatest amount of freedom."

Ken Bausano, on trumpet, is a graduate of CSUB where he earned a Master's Degree in Psychology. From his arrival at West High School, he has performed with numerous local and international artists including Ella Fitzgerald, Pete Christlieb, Lanny Morgan, and CSUB Jazz Jam guests such as Toshiko Akiyoshi, Gerald Wilson, Sammy Nestico. He is also the leader of Chesterfield King and the Sultans of Swing.

Mike Raney, on saxophone, is a BHS graduate who completed his Bachelor's Degree at Cal State Northridge, studying with L.A. vibraphonist, Charlie Shoemake. His solid bebop foundation has been on display in performances with Victor Feldman, Lew Tabackin, Matt Cattingub, and Freddie Hubbard. He joined "Sanctuary" on his return to Bakersfield and has performed with numerous groups at the Bakersfield Jazz Festival.

Doug Davis, on piano, graduated summa cum laude from the University of Tennessee, earning his doctorate in composition from Harvard University and coming to head the CSUB theory and jazz programs in 1982. His compositions have been recorded by jazz artists Chick Corea, Larry Coryell, and Bennie Wallace. He is the director of the Bakersfield Jazz Festival from its inception and is presently the chairman of the CSUB Music Department.

James Dethlefsen, on bass, is a Highland High School graduate and presently the music technician at CSUB. He has recorded with Kris Tiner, Jim Scully Group, Outside the Head, and Garden of Souls. His involvement with local theater led to the writing of incidental music for a number of Shakespeare productions. He is presently also playing with the Southside Chicago Seven.

Ernie Cervantes, on drums, is a graduate of BHS and CSUB with degrees in both history and music. He has been the principal percussionist for the Bakersfield Symphony for more than two decades.
